Health Checks

Now, more than ever, it is important to evaluate your student's health before sending them to school. We have posted a parent checklist on our webpage (the link is below). Please refer to this checklist when you are questioning if your student should attend school or if they should stay/quarantine at home. Students who become sick at school need to be picked up immediately from the school. This may mean that some families need to set up a secondary transportation pick up plan. The school nurse, secretary or principal will inform you of when your student can return to school and what procedures need to be followed when sent home with an illness. Call the school with any questions, comments or concerns.

Marnie's Wellness Corner

"What makes my child act that way?" "Why did they do that?" Do you ask yourself these questions? Parenting is a very tough job! If you would like to learn some new tips and ideas, I invite you to register for our upcoming Triple P parenting topic "Dealing with Disobedience." Triple P stands for Positive Parenting Program and is a parenting and family support system designed to prevent -as well as treat- behavioral and emotional problems in children and teenagers. Triple P is for all parents, grandparents or other caregivers who want to understand and learn more about interacting with their children. We will be hosting four groups this school year. Stay tuned for more information and topics! Each group is stand alone. Try it out! Feel free to email me with your questions, soea_mreber@tccsa.net.

Breakfast/Lunch

The U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) has recently announced an extension of the summer meal program to be extended through December 31, 2020 or until available funding runs out. This extension will allow schools to serve free meals to all students in the school district.

We would encourage parents who feel that they may qualify for free/reduced meals to turn in an application to be processed. Besides helping families with school meal costs, the increased number of qualified free/reduced meal applications helps the district qualify for additional Federal dollars for district programs.
