Special Notes:

Happy New Year! We eased our way back into school from our Christmas break. The kids were ready to learn! We started our unit on Geometry (shapes) and we are working on our animal Google Slide presentations. . Our next science topic will be forces and motion. Today we warmed up with a good book and some hot chocolate for our Fun Friday! I hope you all had a blessed Christmas and enjoyed time with your family.

The next Student of the week is: Jayden Raber

Dates to Remember:

Jan 11 - Popcorn Day

Jan 12- End of 2nd nine weeks

Jan 15 - No School - MLK day

Growth mindset: Instead of saying "It's good enough" try saying "Is this my best work?"
